HISTORICAL NOTICE.

The settlement of Wallingford was projected in New Haven in 1669, and the town was incorporated by the General Assembly, at Hartford, in May, 1670. The settlers, from the first, instituted and supported public worship, and for two years had for their preacher, Rev. John Harriman, and their place of meeting was for ten years a private house.

In 1672 Rev. Samuel Street was invited to become their pastor. He accepted their invitation, and in the following year removed his family from New Haven to Wallingford. In 1675, after there had been ample time for the inhabitants to become acquainted with each other's religious views and feelings, and after much deliberation, with fasting and prayer, they formally organized the church, which is now the Congregational Church of Wallingford. The present church edifice is their fifth, which was dedicated to the worship and service of God, May 21, 1869.

PASTORS.

REV. SAMUEL STREET.

Called in 1672. Under his supervision the church was organized. He died January 16, 1717, aged 82 years.

CONFESSION OF FAITH.

I. We believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible ;

And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who is of one substance with the Father ; by whom all things were made ;

And in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of life, who is sent from the Father and Son, and who together with the Father and Son is worshiped and glorified.

II. We believe that the Providence of God, by which he executes his eternal purposes in the government of the world, is in and over all events ; yet so that the freedom and responsibility of man are not impaired, and sin is the act of the creature alone.

III. We believe that man was made in the image of God, that he might know, love, and obey God, and enjoy him forever ; that our first parents by disobedience fell under the righteous condemnation of God ; and that all men are so alienated from God that there is no salvation from the guilt and power of sin except through God's redeeming grace.

IV. We believe that God would have all men return to him ; that to this end he has made himself known, not only through the works of nature, the course of his providence, and the consciences of men, but also through supernatural revelations made especially to a chosen people, and above all, when the fullness of time was come, through Jesus Christ his Son.

V. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the record of God's revelations of himself in the work of redemption ; that they were written by men under the special guidance of the Holy Spirit ; that they are able to make wise unto salvation ; and that they constitute the authoritative standard by which religious teaching and human conduct are to be regulated and judged.

VI. We believe that the love of God to sinful men has found its highest expression in the redemptive work of his Son ; who became man, uniting his divine nature with our human nature in one person ; who was tempted like other men, yet without sin ; who, by his humiliation, his holy obedience, his sufferings, his death on the cross, and his resurrection, became a perfect Redeemer ; whose sacrifice of himself for the sins of the world declares the righteousness of God, and is the sole and sufficient ground of forgiveness and of reconciliation with him.

VII. We believe that Jesus Christ, after he had risen from the dead, ascended into heaven, where, as the one Mediator between God and man, he carries forward his work of saving men ; that he sends the Holy Spirit to convict them of sin, and to lead them to repentance and faith ; and that those who through renewing grace turn to righteousness, and trust in Jesus Christ as their Redeemer, receive for his sake the forgiveness of their sins, and are made the children of God.

VIII. We believe that those who are thus regenerated and justified grow in sanctified character through fellowship with Christ, the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, and obedience to the truth ; that a holy life is the fruit and evidence of saving faith ; and that the believer's hope of continuance in such a life is in the preserving grace of God.

IX. We believe that Jesus Christ came to establish among men the kingdom of God, the reign of truth and love, righteousness and peace ; that to Jesus Christ, the Head of this kingdom, Christians are directly responsible in faith and conduct ; and that to him all have immediate access without mediatorial or priestly intervention.

X. We believe that the Church of Christ, invisible and spiritual, comprises all true believers, whose duty it is to associate themselves in churches, for the maintenance of worship, for the promotion of spiritual growth and fellowship, and for the conversion of men ; that these churches, under the guidance of the Holy Scriptures and in fellowship with one another, may determine—each for itself—their organization, statements of belief, and forms of worship; may appoint and set apart their own ministers, and should coöperate in the work which Christ has committed to them for the furtherance of the Gospel throughout the world.

XI. We believe in the observance of the Lord's Day as a day of holy rest and worship; in the ministry of the Word; and in the two Sacraments which Christ has appointed for his Church: Baptism, as the sign of cleansing from sin, of union to Christ, and of the impartation of the Holy Spirit; and the Lord's Supper, as a symbol of his atoning death, a seal of its efficacy, and a means whereby he confirms and strengthens the spiritual union and communion of believers with himself.

XII. We believe in the ultimate prevalence of the kingdom of Christ over all the earth; in the glorious appearing of the Great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; in the resurrection of the dead; and in a final judgment, the issues of which are everlasting punishment and everlasting life.

FORM OF ADMISSION TO MEMBERSHIP.

Dearly beloved, called of God, to be His children through Jesus Christ our Lord, you are here that, in the presence of God and His people, you may enter into the fellowship and communion of His Church.

Accepting, according to the measure of your understanding of it, the system of Christian truth held by the Churches of our faith and order, and by this Church into whose fellowship you now enter; you join with ancient saints, with the Church throughout the world, and with us, your fellow-believers, in humbly and heartily confessing your faith in the Gospel, saying;—

[The Church shall rise to repeat the Apostles Creed with the Minister and Candidates]

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; the third day He rose from the dead; He ascended into heaven; and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the Holy Catholic Church; the Communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

[The Congregation having resumed their seats the minister shall say]

You who in childhood were admitted by baptism to a place in the covenant of God, do now, of your own accord, assume its full obligations and privileges;

And to you who have had no part, by baptism, among the people of God, we do now apply the seal of the Covenant.

——— I baptize thee into the name of the Father, and the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

COVENANT.

In the presence of God and this assembly, you do now seriously, deliberately and forever give up yourselves in faith and love and holy obedience to God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost ; accepting the Lord, Jehovah to be your God : Jesus Christ to be your prophet, priest and king ; and the Holy Ghost to be your sanctifier, comforter and guide. Although sensible of your weakness, and of your liability to error and sin, still you do sincerely desire, and by the aids of Divine grace, do promise to receive in love the pure doctrines of the gospel, to walk in the statutes and ordinances of the Lord blameless, and to do honor to your high and holy vocation by a life of piety toward God and benevolence towards your fellow men.

You do, also, cordially join yourselves to this church of Christ, engaging to submit to its discipline, and solemnly covenanting, as much as in you lies, to promote its peace, edification and purity, and to walk with its members in Christian love, faithfulness, circumspection, sobriety and meekness.

This you promise and engage to do, with humble trust in the grace of God, and with an affecting belief that your vows are recorded on high, and will be reviewed on the day of final judgment.

Thus you promise and engage !

[Then should those rise who would unite with the Church by letter]

Confessing the Lord whom we unitedly worship, you do now renew your self-consecration, and join with us cordially in this our Christian faith and covenant.

[The members of the Church shall rise]

We, then, as a Church, do cordially receive you into our fellowship and communion, and give thanks to God, who, we trust has inclined your heart to fear his name. We promise to treat you with Christian affection ; to watch over you with tenderness ; and to offer our prayers to the great head of the Church to enable you to fulfill the solemn covenant which you have now made. The Lord bless you and keep you ; the Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you ; the Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace. Now unto him who is able to establish you and keep you from falling and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory, with exceeding joy, to the only wise God, our Saviour—be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.
